

GMP-Status for Mammalian Cell culture products at Capricorn Scientific

Our Mammalian Cell Culture Products are crafted in strict adherence to Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) guidelines. To uphold this esteemed standard, we rigorously align ourselves with GMP-quality parameters. This encompasses a thorough evaluation of our raw material suppliers, the meticulous configuration of our state-of-the-art production facilities and processes, and an accurate Quality Assurance process upon completion of production.

In doing so, we confidently assert that our operations comply with GMP conditions, obviating the necessity for GMP certification.

We extend a warm invitation to your dedicated quality team to audit our facilities and processes.

Sincerely,

Capricorn Scientific GmbH
